

Dear Employer,

Are you ready to help shape the future workforce while strengthening your talent pipeline?

The Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico cordially invites you to participate in our upcoming Job Fair, "Build Your Burrow", an experiential recruitment event inspired by our official mascot — the beaver — and its commitment to planning, building, and creating strong foundations for the future.

Just as a beaver carefully constructs its burrow, our students are actively building their professional paths. This Job Fair is designed to connect your organization with highly motivated undergraduate students, graduating seniors, and alumni in Engineering, Architecture, Business Administration, and STEM-related fields, all eager to contribute their skills, innovation, and drive to today's workforce.

This high-impact recruitment event will be held on Thursday, March 12, 2026, from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M., at the San Juan Campus of the Polytechnic University.

Registration is now open and will remain available until February 26. For pricing details, please refer to the attached information. To register, please visit:

Spaces are limited. We encourage you to secure your spot and join us in building the next generation of professionals.

For questions or assistance, contact us at coop@pupr.edu or (787) 765-5974.

We look forward to welcoming you to Build Your Burrow — where future professionals and industry leaders build strong careers together.

Cordially,

Tamara I. Miranda Rivera, PhD
IDEA Center Director
Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico
